Pat Base To Reign Over Poly Royal

Pat Base, elected Cal Poly Royal queen last semester, will be crowned Saturday night as a climax to California State Polytechnic College's annual open house.

Miss Base was selected last November from 44 SJS coeds for the title of Poly queen. She and princesses Rheua Nell Chase and Patti Kaser, also from SJS will reign over the two-day festivities.

The open house begins on Friday with a tour of exhibits and concludes Saturday night with the Coronation Ball. Among the features of the Poly Royal are an inter-collegiate rodeo, a carnival and carnival dance, swimming meet, band concert, skill contests and a steak barbecue.

CSTA Extends Sign-Up Deadline For Executive Meet

Sign-up deadline for the CSTA Executive Council Meeting at Asilomar has been extended until 9 p.m. tonight, Bill Blum, president, announced yesterday.

Cost of the meeting, which is scheduled to take place Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28, is $6. However, the first 20 applicants will have half of this cost defrayed by the SJS chapter.

Reservations for the conference may be made by calling CY 4-9618.

One carload of delegates already has been formed. They will attend the Friday session and return that night. Others may stay for the full two days.

During the SJS chapter meeting on April 19 members voted to press for a change in the state CSTA constitution which would permit greater representation of larger chapters. It was further decided that the state CSTA should not join with the larger national organization as long as it permits segregation in any college chapter.

These proclamations will be presented during the executive meeting which is composed of general sessions and nine separate committee meetings.

Theme of this year's Poly Royal is "It's A Modern World." This is the 24th year of the "Country Fair on a College Campus." A crowd of 18,000 from all over the country is expected to attend the event.

Exhibits from the various departments will further the "Country Fair" slogan. Several new buildings have been constructed on the campus since last year's open house, and they will be open for inspection.

'Greeks,' Faculty Leaders To Meet, Discuss Problems

A meeting to formulate solutions to problems existing between the Greek organizations and the college administration will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Room 20.

Dr. John T. Wahlquist, president of SJS; Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of students; Robert S. Martin and Miss Helen Dimmick, associate deans of students; and presidents of fraternities and sororities will attend the meeting.

QUEEN PAT BASE (center) and Princesses Rheua Nell Chase (right) and Patti Kaser (left) will reign over the two-day annual California State Polytechnic Open House this coming weekend. The three were chosen in a contest last November.

Advertisers To Conduct Seminar Next Weekend

Advertising problems of daily and weekly newspapers will be aired at the second annual California Newspaper Publishing Association Advertising Seminar Friday and Saturday, May 4-5. Leading advertising men from prominent California papers will head the sessions.

Sponsored by SJS and the CNPA, the event will be held in Newman Hall, according to Dr. Dwight D. Bentel, SJS Journalism and Advertising head. Bentel will lead the seminar.

Salesmanship will be the subject of the opening session Friday at 9 a.m., with Lou Heindel, San Jose Mercury and News advertising director, conducting the discussion.

Friday afternoon, a session on copy and ad layout will be conducted by Bill Brewer, art director, and Miss Lee Ames, merchandise and copy director, both from a newspaper mat service company.

Saturday morning sessions on the advertising market and mechanical problems will be discussed. In addition, special weekly newspaper topics are scheduled for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Other subjects to be discussed include promotions, scheduling and deadlines, and classified advertising.

The seminar was attended by 130 representatives from daily and weekly newspapers, last year.

Editor To Discuss Job Opportunities

"Job Opportunities in Advertising" will be the topic of discussion at tomorrow's Senior Journalism-Advertising Seminar. The seminar, which will be held in J101 at 12:30 p.m., will feature Frank J. Bruguiere, editor of the Western Advertising Magazine.

A professional ad man for almost twenty five years, Bruguiere started as a space salesman for Conde Nast magazines in New York. He then went to San Francisco and worked for the Shell Oil Company for ten years, seven of them as editor of the company's marketing publication.

Bruguiere spent ten years in the ad agency business in San Francisco, two of them as partner in his own shop. He has served as editor of Western Advertising for three years.

All students interested in advertising are invited to attend the informal talk, according to Dr. Leonard Hippen, associate professor of advertising.

Croes To Speak In Series

Roger Williams Fellowship of Grace Baptist Church has scheduled Dr. Henry J. Croes, marriage consultant, and will arrange for other qualified speakers for its May series of talks on love and marriage. Olivia Tafalla, publicity chairman, announced today.

Delevoryas To Play Recital Thursday In Concert Hall

The extremely difficult and seldom played Paganini-Brahms variations will be played by John Delevoryas, newest member of the piano faculty, when he makes his campus debut Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

Delevoryas is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and the Juilliard School of Music where he received both his B.S. and M.S. degrees in piano. He made his recital debut at the Museum of Fine Arts in Massachusetts when he was only 15 years old, already having won the Community Concert award.

As a scholarship student at the Juilliard School of Music, Delevoryas was declared the outstanding pianist of his class and was presented with the coveted Rosenberg and Loeb Prizes. After graduation, he was appointed to the faculty of the Juilliard School, remaining in that capacity until coming to San Jose in the fall of 1955.

During his short stay here in San Jose, he has performed for student groups and has established a reputation for being a sound musician and a brilliant technician, according to Erik Petersen, assistant professor of music.

The recital also will include numbers by Bach, Mozart, Brahms, Prokofiev and Chopin.

Former San Jose Student To Conduct Own Composition

The SJS Symphonic Band, under the direction of Dr. Robert Fiestler, assistant professor of music, will present a concert on May 1 at 8:15 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

One of the selections, "Variations for Concert Band," will be conducted by the composer, Allyn M. Ferguson Jr., a graduate of San Jose State College.

Appearing as soloists with the band in Wagner's "Concerto Grosso" will be Allan Friesen, George Joiner and Richard Hodge, trumpet; and Saul Estrada, baritone horn.

The program will include "Overture to La Clemenza Di Tito," "Concerto Grosso," "Victory at Sea," "Suite in F Major," "Cordoba," "La Comparsa," "Hunting-Tower Ballad" and "Burlesque from Ninth Symphony."

Health Office Schedules Shots

Thursday is the date for the third diphtheria-tetanus toxoid inoculations offered by the college health service.

Typhoid-paratyphoid inoculations will be given on three successive Fridays, May 4, 11 and 18. Immunizations will be given on the dates indicated from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Health Office, Room 31.

UNITED PRESS ROUNDUP

Dulles Says U.S. Ready To Help Convert NATO Into Closer Union of Free Nations

NEW YORK — (UP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said yesterday the United States is ready to join Western European Democracies in "exploring the possibilities" of converting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization into a closer union of free nations.

In a major policy address, Dulles said "the time has come to advance NATO" from its initial phase as a mutual defense pact "into the totality of its meaning."

thinking in terms of greater economic and political cooperation.

He made clear, however, that the United States does not envision complete federation of the NATO powers, but rather a system in which each nation would preserve a considerable measure of independence in foreign affairs as well as in its domestic affairs.

Dulles did not spell out in detail his ideas on a closer union. But he indicated that he was

Hawaiian Gardens Site For Semi-Formal Affair

Bids for the annual Junior Prom will go on sale tomorrow in the Outer Quad, it was announced yesterday at the regular meeting of the Junior Class. The price of the bids is set at $2 each.

The prom, which will be held Saturday, May 5, at the Hawaiian Gardens, will be a semi-formal affair, with the men wearing suits and the women wearing formals. The class voted that no corsages should be bought for the prom.

Committee Lists Deadline, Rules For Song Contest

Deadline for turning in songs for the Centennial Song Contest has been set for April 30, according to Bob Montilla, chairman of the contest. Entries must be turned in to the office of Ted Balgooyen, in Room 112 of the Speech and Drama Building.

The contest is limited to students of SJS, and all entries must be written on some aspect of college life. The songs will be judged on the basis of quality, originality, and aptness to theme.

Contestants may submit as many songs as they wish but all such entrants must be numbered and submitted at one time. Entries must be written in ink on manuscript paper and must include lyrics as well as music. Any musical form may be used.

Judges for contest will be announced at later date by the Revelries Board. The judges' decision will be final and submission of entries indicates the contestants acceptance of the rules.

The winning entry will be announced in May, during the Revelries productions, and all but the winning entry will be returned to the rightful owners. The winning entry will become the property of the Associated Student Body.

Women's Glee Club To Give Concert

The SJS Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Frederick Loadwick, assistant professor of music, will give its first concert on May 10, at 8:15 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

The Women's Glee Club is a new choral group on campus this year. It is composed of 44 girls. The club will sing three groups of songs. The first group will include "Romance," "Der Jaeger," Schubert's "Nacht und Traume" and Granville Bantock's "Silent Strings."

The second group will feature four American composers, Jerome Kern, Irving Fine, Richard Rodgers and Sigmund Romberg.

The program will close with a group of motets to be sung in Latin and a selection from Mozart's "Requiem."

FRESH SELL 106 CONES

Despite unfavorable weather and first day confusion, the Freshman Class sold more than $10 in snow cones yesterday afternoon in the Outer Quad between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., according to Freshman Class officers.

The official announcement came at yesterday's class meeting in the Education Lecture Hall, Room 55, by Carol Nanney, co-chairman of the snow cone committee. The exact amount taken in was $10.65 or 106 10 cent sales.

Nanney stated that, "If we can sell that much on a cold day, we should have a fabulous sale on a warm day." The statement clearly indicates the opinion of the class officers.

DJ'S TALK TO SOPHS

Bob Custer and Dick Garvin from Radio Station KLOK spoke to the Sophomore Class for its regular meeting yesterday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 117.

The two announced and played records for the station. Custer told of the trend in combining west coast art with west coast music in making LP record covers, and talked on how recordings are produced.

Garvin told of his experiences in becoming a disk jockey and outlined his work day at KLOK, and then Custer offered some advice on breaking in to radio.

The Soph committee for the games booths for the Campus Chest drive May 4 reported that plans were working smoothly and that much had been accomplished.

SENIOR SEEK SPEAKER

The Senior Class Council met yesterday in SD 126 where reports from the various committees were heard.

The council is still trying to obtain a speaker for the Senior Banquet, George Mardikian, previously queried by the council, stated in a letter to the body that he was unable to make the talk due to personal appearance engagements in the East for his publishers.

Don Abinante, Senior Class president, reminded council members that all seniors graduating this June are to be measured for their caps and gowns in the Spartan Shop, May 1-2. A $5.50 deposit on the cap and gown are required.

Too, he said, he might demand a two-price system for rice. All of Ellender's suggested provisions were part of the catch-all farm bill which Mr. Eisenhower vetoed last week on grounds it would create far more problems than it would have solved.

SOVIET MISSILE BIRMINGHAM, England — (UP) — Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev boasted yesterday that the Soviet Union is working on a guided missile with an H-bomb warhead which can land anywhere in the world. "Great stress is being laid on guided missiles," he told an audience of British businessmen and civic leaders in a speech during a stopover here on the tour he and Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin are making of this country.

Ducat Sales To Start For 1956 Revelries

Tickets for the 1956 production of Revelries, will go on sale tomorrow in the Student Affairs Business Office, according to Jim Houston, associate student director. Price for the tickets will be 75 cents for student body cardholders and $1 for others. This year's show, "On the Nose," was written by Jim Dunn, Bob Weiss and Houston.

Protraying the leads for the musical will be Marion Brugnone, and Frank Davidson. Miss Brugnone will play Ann Seddelmeier, the toy maker's daughter. Davidson will play the part of J. Forbes Robinson, a materialistic tycoon who manufactures toys.

Others in the cast include Craig Thush as "Shorty the Shade," Nancy Stephens, Emma Seddelmeier; Bernie Gardner, Jake Seddelmeier; Grant Salzman, Alex Chase; Benita Camicia, Bernice Fenney; Bob Montilla, waiter and office boy; Dave Schmitt, "Excuse My Wright," Suzy Zingler, Wilson; Bob Gordon, robot; and Bob Montilla, Prof. Schultz.

The plot for Revelries involves a toymaker who in reality is a bookie. His one ambition in life is to keep the fact of his unlawful practices from his lovely daughter, whom he is putting through school. When the toy tycoon comes to town, the whole story is thrown into chaos.

Fourteen original songs, including words and music were written for the production by Jim Kason, producer of last year's show. The performances will be accompanied by an eight-piece band under the direction of Dick Tash, musical director.

Production dates have been set for May 10, 11, 12 and again the following weekend May 18 and 19.

Lapidary Society To Show Jewelry

The annual show of the San Jose Lapidary Society will be held Saturday and Sunday in Room 22 of the Women's Gym. It will be open from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. both days and no admission will be charged.

There will be demonstrations of gem cutting and polishing of stones in the rough as well as a showing of a large collection of jewelry in original designs and settings.

CRAIG THUSH portrays the role of "Shorty the Shade," in the '56 Revelries production of "On the Nose." Tickets will go on sale tomorrow in the Student Affairs Business Office. Price for tickets is 75 cents with student body card and one dollar for general admission.

Fancy Answers

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Because the cohorts of the ROTC used the personal attack method of answering the original letter on the ROTC, I feel an answer is called for.

The original letter stated that the militarists contribute nothing to fostering free thought, dissenting ideas and individual investigation, and the proponents, true to form, showed their dislike for dissenting ideas or individual thought. Because we deplored the military approach, our personal integrity was impugned by near-bellous statements about being the type of person who could "start the roots of Communism growing on this campus."

How would the ROTC program fare if the draft were eliminated? Just how many of these self-appointed "darling defenders of democracy" would be in the ROTC program? I wonder if Charles Irwin and Joe Vallenari plan to stay in the service beyond their required tour following graduation? We need a strong military because of the dangers of world Communism, but the fact remains that the military service does not foster free thought or dissenting opinions as proved by all the letters of April 20.

Except for the opinion of the ex-First Lieutenant, all the other authors apparently have not seen the inside of the military service, but instead have a limited textbook knowledge of the service. Even the ex-Lieutenant admitted that monetary considerations play a great part in the attraction of the ROTC. Oh yes, did you notice that the Lieutenant is now an ex-Lieutenant?

For the past few months, thanks to our courts, "McCarthyism" has been disappearing, with the possible exception of some people on this campus. Because we dared attack the sacred confines of the ROTC program, we have had our integrity and loyalty impugned. One letter deplored the misuse of freedom of speech and how we had undermined this democracy. Really, gentlemen, do you believe that everyone is a commie or traitor if he disagrees with you?

Leo Fancey—ASB 6372.
P.S.—Has the Daily discontinued the policy of cutting out libelous letters, like the ones that were printed on April 20? I suggest that the staff read the letters of that date and then read a definition of libel!

(Editor's Note: We suggest that Mr. Fancey also read the definition of libel.)

Military Mind Foremost

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Who are these people with foreign sounding names who slur our nation's most respected profession? Perhaps they do not realize that the military mind is foremost in the field of objective inquiry. They have not been told (apparently) that to be a soldier is to be a MAN, that true self-discipline can be attained only within the military machine and that creativeness is the inevitable outcome of the military life.

Reason demands that the essence of individuality, as demonstrated on the drill field, be continued here. Certainly the value of being surrounded by evidences of military "courtesy" and propriety is inestimable. It is through observing these things that the true nature of democracy can be determined.

Surely no one will disparage the deathless contributions to academic achievement generated in the headquarters of the ROTC. We are all well aware of the free thought and creative enterprise typical of military leaders.

Let us, then, not listen to those who would slander the ideal of every Right Thinker. Let us, rather, recognize the military as the symbol of progress, the epitome of righteousness, and the culmination of man's efforts to create for himself, the best of all possible lives.

Challenges Candidates

Dear Thrust and Parry:

During recent weeks there have been many articles concerning student government and the issues of the coming elections. However, while these undoubtedly have stirred up some controversy and, I hope, some thought, none has been endorsed officially nor officially denied by any of the candidates. Nonetheless, they are questions which, among others, demand answers from the candidates.

It seems, then, that it would be a good thing, and possibly something new at San Jose State, if the candidates themselves were to answer these questions, and if they were to be put to some sort of test by one another and by the collective student body. Therefore, let me suggest the following: that the candidates for student body president meet in formal public debate to argue for their issues, and to answer questions put to them by the student body.

Consequently, I publicly challenge any, or all of the opposing candidates for ASB president, to meet me in a public discussion on any of the following propositions: Does Student Government Really

Official Cites Need for Men Teachers

CHICAGO (UP)—The key to solving the teacher shortage lies in attracting more men into the profession, in the opinion of a National Education Association official.

T. M. Stinnett, executive secretary of the NEA's commission on teacher education and professional standards, said ways must be found to make teaching more attractive economically and to raise the profession's prestige in the eyes of men.

He said "we lose 8 to 10 per cent of our teaching force each year," compared to a 3 per cent loss in the medical profession.

From This Corner Lang Eyes Olympics

By PETER MECKEL
(Sports Editor)

Lang Stanley's time of 1:42.7 for the halfmile establishes him as one of the primary contenders for the United States Olympic Team at 800 meters. Lang's clocking Saturday is the 15th best 880 ever run in history. Only nine other men have ever run faster than 1:48.7.

Most of Stanley's competition for an Olympic berth will come from Pittsburgh's Arnie Sowell, former Fordham ace Tom Courtney, Emporia State's Bill Tidwell, Lon Spurrier and Mal Whitfield.

Stanley believes that Sowell and Courtney are "already on the boat" and it is between himself, Tidwell and Spurrier for the remaining third spot. Tidwell, who was third in last year's AAU meet ahead of Stanley at 1:48.3, may be the Spartan star's toughest competition for an Olympic spot.

Even the vanquished Spurrier cannot be counted off the U.S. team. The Olympic Club ace reported after the race that he was not ready to run as fast as was necessary to beat Stanley. Spurrier, World record holder, stated he plans to reach his peak June 23-30, dates for the Olympic trials.

From this corner it appears Stanley has an excellent chance to make the Olympic team. The Spartan star is a great competitor and proved it again Saturday when he took Spurrier on the last 180 yards after the former California star had repulsed a Stanley threat on the backstretch.

Fresno To Be Tough

Fresno State's close meet with Occidental in which the latter was extended to the limit in order to score a 68 1/3-62 1/3 victory makes it appear San Jose State's chances for an upset are mighty slim in the annual dual meet when Fresno State invades Spartan Field Saturday.

However victory is still possible if Spartan field men come through in their events. Top efforts could produce a sweep in the broad jump, a first and third in the high jump, first and second in the discus, a first and a tie for second in the pole vault, a first and third in the javelin, and a second in the shot put.

With these places and a pair of victories by Stanley in the 440 and 880 plus numerous seconds and thirds on the track, San Jose could pull off what Winter terms would be, "the biggest track dual meet upset of the year."

Don Hellmers Tops Frat Intramural Cage Scorers

Big Don Hellmers, Kappa Alpha captain, topped Fraternity intramural cagers in scoring with 151 points for a 12.5 average, according to statistics released by Charlie Hardy, intramural director.

He was followed by Sigma Nu's Jim Carter, who rang up 146 markers, and Delta Upsilon's John Wagner, who bagged 145 digits.

Alpha Tau Omega's champions placed three men among the top 10 scorers. They were Pat Francisco, Shelley Beebe and Phil Monteith.

ATO's powerful five now awaits the outcome of the Independent race which will determine its opponent in the college championship.

Judo Squad Wins Senior PAAU Meet

Spartans Dominate;
Uchida Takes Honors

San Jose State's judo team added another trophy to its growing collection Sunday as it won the Senior PAAU tournament at Palo Alto.

The Spartan judoists completely dominated the tournament as they gathered 24 points. The Palo Alto Judo Club took second place with six points.

The only other teams to gain points were the San Jose Buddhist and San Francisco, both with three counters.

Mel Augustine of SJS rolled up the most points in the tournament with seven.

Spartan George Uchida was named the most outstanding performer while San Jose State won every weight category which it entered. Jack Crawford won the heavyweight division; Augustine captured the 180-pound class and Uchida won the 150-pound division. Bud Kane of Palo Alto won the 130-pound class.

Ben Campbell of State placed third in the heavyweight class, and Ro Wauer of SJS gathered a third place in the 180-pound division.

San Jose State took the first three places in the 150-pound division as John Sepulveda and Howard Watanabe placed behind Uchida.

The Senior PAAU victory was the Spartans second in a row and marked the third consecutive time that a Spartan has been named the outstanding performer of the annual tournament. Last year it was Crawford who won the most outstanding award and in 1954 Uchida was selected as the tournament's top performer.

Two judo teams, Oakland and the University of California, failed to gain a single point.

Augustine, Crawford, Campbell, Wauer and Sepulveda formed the five-man SJS team which reached the semi-finals of the state championships, held here two weeks ago.

Grid Coach Shifts Lineup To Find Winning Combo

By DICK O'CONNOR

Seeking to find a winning combination, Coach Bob Bronzan continues to make various shifts in the lineup of the Spartan football team.

At the start of spring practice, three weeks ago, Bronzan announced that there would be several position changes and the Spartan coach has kept true to his word. Two of the players who have switched positions have apparently won first string berths.

At the present time the first team is made up of Pete Galloni and Jim Moore at ends, Austin "Porkchops" Laramie and Jim Hughes at tackles, Hank Sekoeh and Herb Boyer at guards and Roland Logan at center.

Moore, a 6 ft, 180 pounder from Bellflower has sparkled with his downfield blocking. Mel Powell, last year's starter at that position, is in the hospital with an infected tooth. He should be ready to resume practice next week. Hughes, a two-year letter winner at guard, is quickly making the adjustment to tackle.

The first team backfield consists of Dick Vermeil, ex-Napa JC flash at quarterback; dependable Walt Ackemann and newcomer Harvel Pollard at the half-back spots and converted end Claude Gilbert at fullback. In last Friday's scrimmage, Benny Guzman, former James Lick All SCVAL selection broke loose for two touchdown dashes of over 60 yards. Another feature of the scrimmage was the sharp passing of former East Contra Costa JC quarterback, Marv McKean.

The downfield blocking leaders after the scrimmage were: Pete Galloni is the overall downfield blocking leader after the scrimmage, with 245 points.

In pass protection, Hughes, also last year's winner in this division, is the leader with 21 successful blocks in 21 tries. He is followed by the Puente "pachyderms," Nick Sanger and Al Severino, each with a 14 for 14 record.

SJS Nine To Seek Clincher

Borghesani To Start
In Rubber Contest

Spartan baseball hopes are pinned on Lefty Bob Borghesani as the SJS nine goes after the rubber game win in its three-game series with University of San Francisco today at 3 p.m. at Municipal Stadium.

Borghesani is looking for his fifth victory of the season today, as San Jose plays its first home game in over a week.

The Spartans had defeated the Dons 9-7 early in the month and then were upset by San Francisco 12-6 Friday. Both contests were played in San Francisco.

The San Jose sluggers had a productive weekend as they scored a staggering 45 runs, while winning two out of three games from Bay Area teams. The Spartans fell to USE 12-6, but came back to take two from San Francisco State, 24-12 and 15-9. The team batting average was upped to a resounding .315 after the three-game spree.

San Jose drove out five home runs over the weekend, with Joe Winstead leading the surge with two circuit blows. Stan Beasley, Borghesani and Hal Kolstad also got four-base blows.

Coach Walt Williams plans to start ace righthander Tuck Halsey in right field in today's action, and will use him on the mound if Borghesani gets in trouble. Against SFS, the versatile Halsey played centerfield while Winstead came in from that spot to play third base. Regular third baseman Don Hodgson will return to the hot corner today.

Kolstad went the distance in Saturday's opener against the Gators, and after a shaky first inning, pitched effectively to gain his second win of the season. Jim Johnson and Bill Kline pitched in the aftermath.

Jerry Clifford will start behind the plate in today's game, with Borghesani on the mound, Ed King, first base; Beasley, second base; Hodgson, third base, and Bill Rahming, shortstop. Chuck Reynolds will open in left field, Winstead in center, and Halsey in right.

Freshmen Baseballers Face Menlo J.C. Today

The San Jose State freshman baseball team will meet Menlo Junior College this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Spartan Field.

Spartan Coach Bill Gustafson disclosed yesterday that he will start Virgil Piper on the mound today.

Don Christiansen will be behind the plate for the frosh today with Eugene Angius at first; Bill Harvey, second; Bill Collins, third; and Maury Hill at shortstop.

Dooley, Cummings Pace Golfers to Pair of Wins

A pair of par-shattering performances by Glen Dooley and Jack Cummings paced the Spartan golfers to a pair of overpowering wins over Santa Clara and San Diego NTC yesterday at San Jose Country Club.

The Spartans took the measure of the Broncos, 15-3, and drubbed the naval contingent, 16½-1½, in the triangular affair, with Dooley carding a four-under 68 and Cummings a three-under 71. Jim Clark also posted a sub-par 71.

Larry Fry was Bronco medalist with a 74, while Paul Pollock led the Training Center linksmen with a one-under 71.

Next action for the SJS team will start this Thursday, when the entire group—supplemented by an additional 10 men—will take part in the Northern California Inter-collegiate at Pasatiempo.

Civil Service Raises Engineer Salaries

Faced with an urgent need for an estimated 8700 professional engineers and certain categories of physical scientists in the next 12 months, the Civil Service Commission raised starting salaries for these jobs for the third time in approximately a year.

Beginning today, persons hired for such positions in all Federal agencies will receive a starting salary of $4490 a year instead of $4345 if they have a bachelor's degree or equivalent experience. They will be hired at grade GS-5. Those with a master's degree or equivalent experience will receive a starting salary of $5335 a year instead of $4930. These persons will start in grade GS-7.

Affected are professional engineers, physicists, chemists, electronic scientists, metallurgists, astronomers, mathematicians, architects, patent examiners, meteorologists (grade GS-5 only), seven types of technologists and geophysicists specializing in earth physics, geomagnetism and seismology. Above-minimum pay increases are authorized under 1954 legislation designed by Congress to give the Federal Government a fair share of critically needed personnel. This latest raise is intended to bring into Federal service by April 1, 1957, an estimated 3700 employees at grade GS-7 and about 5000 at grade GS-5.

It is estimated that about 1200 employees already are employed in the Federal Government in these categories at grade GS-5 and 2800 at grade GS-7. These employees also will receive the new minimum salaries.

Eta Epsilon To Hold Fashion Show Soon

Eta Epsilon, home economics social club, will present a fashion show next Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Home Economics cafeteria, according to Nancy Burke, general chairman.

Home economics students are invited to try out for modeling tomorrow afternoon between 4 and 5:30 p.m. in Room 14 of the Home Economics Building.

Girls wishing to model should bring or wear the outfits they wish to wear in the fashion show. Ensembles should be complete with accessories, according to Miss Maxalene Altman, assistant professor of home economics.

Decisions on the models will be made by a committee consisting of Mrs. Ouida Mallet, associate professor of home economics, Miss Maxalene Altman and Mrs. Virginia Tindall, home economics major.

Models will display clothes made at home or in clothing classes in the department. The fashion show is open to the public and refreshments will be served. Admission will be 50 cents and tickets may be obtained from Eta Epsilon members.

Panelists To Talk On Family Problems Thursday Night

"The Family—Integration or Disintegration?" will be the subject of a panel discussion Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

On the panel will be Milton Rendahl, head of the department of sociology and social service; Dr. George Muench, professor of psychology; Leonard McConnell, director of the Family Service Association; and Mrs. Stella Sullivan, local police woman.

Mrs. Stanley C. Benz, wife of the Dean of Students, will moderate.

Religious Conflicts In Marriage Topic Of Discussion Today

Dr. Henry J. Croes, pastor of the Grace Baptist Church; Father John S. Duryea, chaplain of Newman Club; and Rabbi Joseph Gitlin, rabbi at Temple Emanu-El, will discuss the importance of religious differences in marriage this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Room 53, Carolyn Stelling, chairman of the Student Y Preparation for Marriage Series, announced yesterday.

Today's session will be the second in this year's series for students contemplating marriage and wishing to prepare themselves for it. It is open to all students, whether or not they have attended previous sessions.

Last week Mrs. Sally Benz, wife of Dean Benz, spoke on the topic, "How Do You Know It's Love?" The Rev. Mr. John Carroll, pastor of the Church of the Valley, will speak and lead next week's discussion on "Emotions and Problems of Adjustment."
